Planet Kids and its employees are committed to operating a safe skateboarding program and takes the safety of campers/participants very seriously. However, parents/guardians of participants registered for this program must recognize that there is an inherent risk of injury when choosing to participate in a skateboarding program. You are solely responsible for determining if you or your child are physically fit and/or adequately skilled for the activities contemplated by this agreement.

WARNING OF RISK

The very nature of skateboarding is hazardous and risky. Such risks and dangers include, but are not limited to, striking an irregularity in the riding surface, losing balance, trying to perform stunts, the skateboard slipping out from under the rider, tripping over a curb, loss of control, colliding with other skateboarders or stationary objects, inadequate or defective equipment, premises defects, attempting a maneuver beyond one's skill level, and all other circumstances inherent to the sport of skateboarding. In this regard, it must be recognized that it is impossible for Planet Kids Ltd. to guarantee absolute safety.
